GHOST 4: HEATER AREA (BYG 2)

THIS ONE IS OBVIOUSLY A LITTLE MIFFED ABOUT SOMEONE OR SOMETHING. HIS NAME IS PATRICK SCOTT AND EVIDENCE PROVES THAT HE WAS AN OVERSEER IN THE WEAVING SHED KNOWN NOW AS BYG 2. HE HAS BEEN SEEN HURRIEDLY PACING THE FLOOR AT NIGHT RAPPING HIS STICK AGAINST OBJECTS IN SOME STATE OF UNEASE.

THIS ONE IS AN OUTSIDER. IT'S THE GHOST OF A MAN CALLED ARTHUR JONES, WHO USED TO BE AN ARCADE MANAGER IN THE EARLY EDWARDIAN ERA. WHEN WE MOVED IN OUR OLD PENNY ARCADE MACHINES MR JONES WAS ATTACHED TO ONE OF THEM AND HAS REMAINED HERE EVER SINCE.

GHOST 7: BYG 3

THE GHOSTLY OUTLINES OF SMALL CHILDREN CAN BE SEEN RUNNING AROUND THE WHOLE OF THE GROUND FLOOR. SOME CRIES OF PAIN HAVE ALSO BEEN WITNESSED. IT IS WELL DOCUMENTED THAT SMALL CHILDREN WHO WORKED IN THE WEAVING SHEDS OF THE TIME WERE OFTEN BADLY INJURED AND SOMETIMES KILLED WHILE CLIMBING THROUGH MACHINERY.

THE FIGURE OF A LADY CAN BE SEEN WALKING FROM HESKIN TO SYD BROOK (GROVE MILL) ALONG THE RIVERBANK LATE AT NIGHT.
